I am pleased to recommend Riya Gupta, of The New Public School, Chandigarh for studying the major of her choice at your university. I have known her in the capacity of her accountancy and business studies teacher in grades 11 and 12. It has been a pleasant experience to observe the utmost inquisitiveness with which she seeks to learn different concepts and gain in-depth knowledge. I have observed her as a proactive and passionate student, both within and outside of the classroom. Extremely enthusiastic, energetic, eager and respectful of her mentors and peers, Riya possesses the required potential to become a successful sports management professional in the future.

Keeping in mind the curriculum which is comparable to global standards and provides diverse exposure, I reckon that Riya is intellectually and socially equipped to handle a culturally diverse and global environment. Her open-mindedness to accept different worldviews has resulted in her being informed and cooperative. She is intellectually curious and delves deep into subjects much beyond the school's curriculum. She is a student with the ability to leave no room for doubt, a quality which has made her immensely seeking within the classroom. What has impressed me most about her is her ability to ask questions that lead to interactive and productive class discussions. Recognizing her helpful attitude towards others, she encourages fellow peers to work hard and accomplish their goals. I have watched her over the years, helping her classmates in times of need.

Outside the classroom, Riya looks for experiences that expose her to and teach her new learning's in life. Focused and determined, her interest in entrepreneurship and management is evident from her participation in various events. She participated in the "Entrepreneurs in Making" fest where she along with her team advertised and sold their products. The revenue earned was then used for the welfare of the underprivileged within society.

Riya is an ambitious, hard-working and confident student. She sets her goals and strives to achieve them. She has the ability to manage of time, which is evident from the way she maintains a balance between her activities, both scholastic and non-scholastic.

I believe Riya has the strength and aptitude to overcome challenges that the forthcoming chapter as a student will bring to her life. It is her keenness to delve into multiple existing possibilities that have made her develop deep human thoughts, understanding and empathy. I am sure that she is capable of achieving all that she desires by basing her efforts on the exceptional qualities and skills that she has.

Please feel free to contact me for any further information that I might be able to provide in support of her application.

Yours sincerely,

Neena Gupta
