LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I am delighted to learn the Naib Kumar decision to pursue Masters Degree. It gives me immense pleasure to write this letter to support his application to your esteemed University. In my interactions with him in the academic environment and in the campus, I have found him to be a hardworking and passionate individual. He possesses natural curiosity, keen intellect and high practicality. These qualities make it clear that he is responsible for the work provided o his like assignments, projects and extracurricular activities.

Academically, I had taught him during his Masters days. He was very sound and good learner. He displayed clarity of thought and good communication skills in all his reports. Naib Kumar never hesitated to voice his opinions and engage in the enlightening conversations. This made him a lively presence in all classes. He nurtures the good habit of actively updating his knowledge on all related subjects and spends a lot of time on research. ॥ आदेषु तिमै आदेषु ॥

All his above mentioned achievements and competencies make him an excellent choice for this program. Now, he is ready for the next stage of his career that is Masters Degree. I have firm belief in his potential and I am sure that he will fulfill the expectations of the University and will perform excellent in his Masters Degree course.

I highly recommend him for admission into your university and I wish him all the best for his future.
