To Whom It May Concern

I feel delight while providing letter of recommendation to my best student Mr. Yunas Aslaam S/o Mr. Gulzar Mohammed and Mrs. Akbari of Class XII Commerce , into your Graduate program for the next coming academic year. My association with his given me a simple scope to assay his capabilities very closely both in class and personally. He had given me a strong impression during the course of studies. His grades were exceptionally good. In additions, his ability as a leader to other students and confidence in varieties of challenges had brought his praises not just from me, but also other members of the Department Board as well. Indeed, he had put in a large amount of extra effort in helping the other student with class notes and revisions" This student exhibits some good characteristics, such as independent, excellent participation in class and confidence, with are essential to success in further studies. I strongly recommend Mr. Yunas Aslaam for his further studies and wish his successfully and bright future.

Mr. Yunas Aslaam has an introvert personality with a jolly nature but at the same time it's Noteworthy that he is ever ready to help and guide his juniors and seniors alike. I would like to appreciate you most favorite considerations to his and, it would be a great pleasure for me to see his continuing his higher studies at your university. If there is any question regarding tom his reference, please feel free to contact me at any time.

Yours Sincerely

Shamunata
